Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Don Healy and Lucille Heirigs exchanged their wedding vows on October 16,-1943, at Saint Boniface Catholic Church in rural Freeman, promising to share their lives and love together for the rest of their days; and,

Whereas, The newly-wed couple of 60 years ago has been replaced by two devoted partners who have shared life's beauty and sorrow, and have grown to love one another more because of their common journey; and,

Whereas, Don and Lucille gave life and love to eight children, Peggy, Donna, Pat, John, Hugh, Charles, Gene, and Kevin, who in turned blessed them with 18 grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Through their lifelong dedication to the values of caring and sharing, Don and Lucille have helped make South Dakota a great place to live and work; and,

Whereas, It is altogether fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognizes and commemorates the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 16, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with the honored couple's family and friends in wishing them continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of their contributions and commitment.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
